

Awareness and Legal Theory 360°

Southern Indiana Leathernecks, Marine Corps League Detachment #931 is coordinating a firearm awareness class. It is based on the self defense use, aspects, and legal questions of carrying a firearm inside and outside of the home. The instructor is Jonathan Wallace II of Native Executive Security.

Whether you have just recently purchased a handgun or have owned one (or many!) for years, you are sure to leave with new knowledge.

The class is 4 ½ hours and we are offering 2 separate class periods. You choose which day you would like to attend. If either session does not reach the minimum enrollment of 10, that session will be cancelled and you will have the opportunity to attend the other session instead.

When: Saturday, October 17, 2020, 8:00 am
Sunday, October 18, 2020, 1:00 pm

Where: American Legion Post 147
1220 Newton Street
Jasper, IN 47546

Cost: $75
PLEASE include your phone number and indicate which session you would like to attend.
